Welcome to Sabine Lohf's big wood workshop! This book gathers more than 150 creative ideas: crocodiles made of tree bark, homemade labyrinths, wooden spoon theater, popsicle stick stars, trains made of fruit crates, and much more. Prepare to saw, hammer, and drill, to paint, glue, and play.

Where can I get wood for my craft project? Which are the best tools to use? What are the properties of the different kinds of wood? Sabine Lohf can answer all of these questions knowledgeably and out of enthusiasm for this wonderful natural material.

A book for hobbyists young and old, and a must-have for lovers of wood!

Plank or bark? What kinds of wood materials are there?

Rasp or sandpaper? What's the right tool? Sawing, carving, drilling, etc.: the technique makes the product!

With many illustrated step-by-step instructions
With a small forest manual – collect wood in the right way!
