Look! Who's crawling over there?

In the first rays of springtime sunlight, a ladybug is emerging from its hiding place. From this point on we accompany this living good luck charm through the year. We observe its development from larvae to and to fully-grown beetle, learn that the little insect is good at defending itself from predators, and come to understand why the ladybug likes to spend time with gardeners. We can even peek under its polka-dotted wings!

Under the fold-out pages there are lots more facts about the seven-pointed ladybug and its colourful relatives.

- With fold-out pages
- With a discoverer's journal and fact sheet

Bärbel Oftring

born in 1962, studied biology and worked as an editor in the garden and nature departments of a large publishing company. Today she works as a freelance author and editor. As an author of over sixty books, she especially loves communicating astounding, interesting, and valuable information about nature and the environment to children. Not accidentally, she is also an outdoor and experiential educator. Oftring published the volumes Wald and Wale und Haie in Gerstenberg's series Lesen—Staunen—Wissen.

Jana Walczyk

born in 1989 in Bramsche bei Osnabrück, studied design and illustration at the Fachhochschule Münster and earned her master's degree at the HAW Hamburg. Since graduating she has worked as a freelance illustrator for books and editorial. Look, A Ladybug! is her third nonfiction children's book.
