

From Hamburg to New York: A Time Travel Adventure Story

English summary
and translation
sample available

10+

Cornelia Franz

Petra Baan

How I Saved Einstein's Life

192 pages, with vignettes

14 x 21,5 cm, hardcover

€ 14,00

Rights sold to Japan, Hungary, Russia and Turkey

It's shortly before midnight on February 28, 2020, and Emily is on board the Queen Mary 2, sailing toward New York. Tomorrow is her 12th birthday and the ocean crossing is her birthday present. Suddenly, she finds herself in an entirely new place and time -- on board a refugee ship in the year 1913!

The same happens to Lorenzo and Malik, who have made this trip before. They relate the news that after the ship arrives in New York, a fire will break out, killing and injuring many on board.

They must prevent this catastrophe!
Somehow they have to find a way to travel back in time. If there's anyone that can help, it's Albert Einstein.

A suspenseful adventure story that looks back in time to 1913, when many German citizens left everything behind to start a new life in a foreign land.

 @GerstenbergVerlag

 @bookrightsgerstenberg

 GERSTENBERG
www.gerstenberg-verlag.de

Cornelia Franz

born 1956 in Hamburg, pursued German and American studies. After a bookstore apprenticeship she worked in publishing for many years, then in 1993 began writing travel guides, novels, and books for children and young readers. How I Saved Einstein's Life is her first book for Gerstenberg.

Petra Baan

The illustrator Petra Baan, born 1977 in the Netherlands, studied in Utrecht. She is a professional illustrator, graphic designer and printmaker for book and magazine publishers. She lives in Berlin with her daughter.

Teil 2 New York

