LFF – that's Dylan, Luisa, Felix, Boubacar, Kyoko and Matthew. These young hackers from all over the world got to know each other through a computer game. When they learn about human rights abuses in the Democratic Republic of Congo, and that two US corporations are involved, they decide to hack into the suspects' network. If they can just manage to post some compromising material online, the revelations will create a worldwide storm of outrage.

But, a young agent from the National Security Agency (NSA) is on their trail

A gripping thriller about six teens unwilling to stand by and do nothing while an unscrupulous international concern with life-threatening activities reaps millions.
