Everyone says "Thank you". Just a little word, but the little frog just can't get it past his lips! Not when the nice fly seller hands him a delicious snake over the counter. Not even when he gets lots of great birthday presents. But you can't have that, can you?

A tongue-in-cheek and warm-hearted story about two little words with a big meaning.

Werner Holzwarth, born in 1947, was Professor of Visual Communication at the Bauhaus University in Weimar. His 1989 book for children The Little Mole became a worldwide success. For Gerstenberg he invented the meerkat character in I wish I were..., thought the Meerkat and the three little beetles in Supercrawler.

Daniela Kulot, born in 1966, has liked nothing better than painting and drawing since she was a child. Since completing her studies at the Augsburg University of Applied Sciences (graphic design and illustration), she has worked as a freelance painter, illustrator and author. She has published numerous picture books that have been translated into many languages.
